THE IRISH QUESTION .- A new turn is presented to the Irish Church question by the fact that the bill for the disestablishment of that Church is rapidly alienating the Protestant population of Ireland from England. The Gladstone Government have counted upon conciliating the Catholics by the new policy, but it is doubtful whether the scheme of substituting Catholic for Prolestant loyelty in Ireland will work. The difficulty is that the Irish Church is only one of the causes for Irish discontent. The land question is one upon which the Irish Catholics have an intense interest, and the danger is that they and the disaffected Irish Protestants may make common cause upon this marter. The English press seems to fear that they may, and it is noticed as ominous that the Orangemen have borrowed the Fenian vocabulary, and their leaders are loud in expressions of hatred towards England. Such union of the heretofore contending religious elements of Ireland upon a common ground of national unity would portend more danger to England than any event of the past. It would not be long before this step would be followed by a movement for national independence, or repeal of the union with England, at least, that would be more difficult to deal with than the bairerained and futile Fenian demonstrations of THEU. P. R. R. COMMISSIONERS .- It appears that a misapprehension existed in the supposition that the report of Commissioner Morris in regard to the Union Pacific Railroad was handed in in advance of that of his colleagues. The fact is, as authoritatively stated to us today, that Mr. Morris' report was filed on the 26th instant, while that of Messrs. Warren and Wilson was filed on the 3id or 24th, either two or three days in advance.

The examinations of this board were confined, it will be remembered, to that portion of the road lying west of the 1,000th mile, and exlending for a distance of about eighty-six miles-The report of Messrs. Wilson and Warren estimates that the sum of $230,450 will be required to put this portion of the road in the condition required by law, while Mr. Morris considers that a very much larger amount will he necessary, though we believe he does not specify any exact sum. This difference may be explained or accounted for by the honest difference of opinion naturally entertained by intelligent and fair-minded men in regard to the same subject, and also possibly to some extent by the fact that Mr. Morris made his examination some two or three weeks earlier nuderstanding in regard to the receipt of the instructions under which the board were to act.

INCREASED RECEIPTS FROM TAXATION .- We stated yesterday that the bill imposing taxes for the year 1869, introduced by Mr. Connolly in the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, fixes the aggregate tax at the same rate as was levied in 186s, that is, $1.50 on each $100 of axable property. The amount realized from this year's taxes, however, will be greatly in excess of that from tax receipts last year. because the assessments have been increased from an aggregate (in round numbers) of $42,660,000 in 1865 to $70,000,000 in 1569; an advance of about 66 per cent. At a tax of $1.50 on each hundred dollars of this increased assessment, a total of $1,050,000 should be realized against $630,000 for the previous year. If the tax bill passes in its present shape, the arcrease will, it is believed, not only greatly assist the corporate authorities in the good work of retrieving the credit of the city, by relieving the financial embarrassment which has prevailed so long, but will enable them to carry out many needed improvements, defeated or delayed heretofore for want of funds. So

It seems to be taken for granted that Louis Napoleon will make some concessions to popular feeling, so unmistakeably exhibited at the iare elections, and will change his "personal government" to one more nearly resembling the constitutional pattern. Some of his organs in England, however, (for he always has a portion of the London press in his interest, as well as that of New York.) declare that he cannot make concessions now, in the face of much rioting as has lately been seen in Paris and elsewhere, wi bout seeming to yield to pressure. He has begun, nevertheless, by getting rid of the unpopular Baron Haussmann, and his confidant, Persigny, has just written a short letter declaring that treedom is not inconsistent with the empire; all which shows that the iceberg has begun to melt.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun seems to think that the resolution introduced in the Stand of Aldermen on Monday night, requestquesting newspapers here to discharge printers employed by them who have taken part against Superintendent Clapp, will be adopted by the Councils. In this he is doubtless mistaken. Were it feasible, it would be proscription very much of the same indefensible sort as that aimed at on the other side against the colored printer Douglass.

The Red Stockings, the Cincinnati Base Ball Club, who managed to defeatall our Eutern clubs on their recent trip will return home on July lat, when a reception will be given them by the clubs and citizens generally. The reception will consist of a welcome at the depet on their arrival, a complimentary game in the afternoon, and a banquet at the Gibson House in the evening.

Mr. Mullen sends us a communication in regard to the difficulty among the printers, which will be found elsewhere. It will be seen that he very candidly avows that the objection to the colored printer Douglass is solely one of caste. He seorns to make any affectation of objecting to him on the "rat" issue or any other after thought. Mr. M. deserves credit for his frankness and candor in the matter.

The Directors of the National Metropolitan Bank (late Bank of Metropolis) this morning declared a semi-annual dividend on their cap-Ital stock of five per cent., free of tax, out of the earnings of the bank for the past six months. We notice with pleasure the continued prosperity of this old, time-honored institution under its present efficient President and Cashier.

The Chicago Tribune thinks the name of the " National Intelligener" was a decided misnomer, and was adopted in that early epoch of the English language when it was supposed that a newspaper could intelligence its readers, wand that it was as easy to make a verb out of a noun as a frog out of a tad-pole."

The boat race between the Atlantic Club of New York and the first class crew of the Naval Academy has been indefinitely postponed. Negotiations will be reopened upon the return of the middles from the summer cruise.

From Cumberland, last week, there were shipped by railroad 20,884 and by canal 20,312

The TRADES USION AT CONFEDERATE I TET CRAY'S Reads. The case of the colored printer Dong. lass appears not to be the only one of its kind in the country. At the Confederate eross-roads in the state of Kentucky, the reverend Mr. Nasby has organized a labor union, composed of the five Caucasian mechanics of that village None of them were plasterers, but they were so desirous of getting rid of a negro plasterer, that they made rules prohibiting anybody from doing any work unless he belonged to the union, and torbidding negroes to join it. Headed by the industrions Nasby, they then "went for' SEE OUTSIDE FOR INTERESTING TELEthe obnoxious African, and what took place is thus described by Nasby:-

On reachin' the house we halted, and there our eyes rested onto a site which blarsted 'em. There waza nigger, a fall-blooded nigger, with There waz a nigger, a full-blooded nigger, with a cap unto him, and overalls, plasterin' away, whistlin' and singin' (sometimes one, some times another, and then agin both at wanst) Methodist bymns. And ever and anon the nathinkin men of inferiority would stop and execcot a break-down, and laff to hisself, so that he cood be heard a mile. The digustin wreich displayed his grovelin nacher by drinkin water out of a bucket which he hed handy by

The victim after trying to work as a blacksmith's assistant and as a laborer on the roads, and being driven off by the union, found himself and his family in danger of starvation, and to relieve their hunger was guilty of some petty thefts. Whereupon, Nasby says:-

There could be but one endin to such a succession uv crimes. The citizens were toe much incensed to await the uncertain akshed by the law and they bung him at site. The corners will never tolerate a nigger theef in their midst,

Messrs. Cavis, Mullen, Robinson and other ex-Confederates, who are puzzling themselves to prevent Douglass from earning an bonest livelihood at his trade, will find some valuable hints in this action of the Usucasian Trades Union at the Confederate X Roads.
